"where is the queen?"

"who is asking?"

"I can not tell"

"she's gone"

"gone where?"

"just gone..."

Before you kick me out, let's try to get mellow
Carry on your speech
I'm watching your lips moving so slow
Does it sound good to you?
Cause it sounds fake to me
I'm looking at you striving to make me new

A story that I know

Happy song for empty people

A story that you love
I'm looking at you trying to make me new

Over and over and over
I'm diving in a pool with no water

Hunting for glory only
Greedy vulture gloating over me
Always nipped in the bud
I should have never asked for nothing
I'm looking at you make me give in to you
I know a story for you empty people, you'll love...

Over and over and over
I'm diving in a pool with no water

I hurt you once, I hurt you twice
I could hurt you even more
I hate myself when I bring tears to your face, ho your face
The nicer you are the more I bite
You make me wanna scratch your eyes
Though I hate myself when I bring tears to your face, ho your face

Ho, ho, bro, ho god, what have I done?

An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth
No matter how hard I strike
I know you love me too

You slapped me once, you slapped me twice
I'm the devil it makes me smile
I'm stuck with you, you're stuck with me too
We share a branch on the tree of life
I hate myself when I bring tears to your face, ho your face
Ho, ho, bro, ho god, what have I done?

An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth
No matter how hard I strike
I know you love me too
I'm stuck with you
You're stuck with me

Hulrik

Hardly could you move
Are we tagged from the womb?
From womb to tomb?
Barely could you breathe
I couldn’t reach your wound
I can’t reach your wound
If only I could be the one turning to ice
Lay your head down and close your eyes
I can not reach your wound
I couldn't reach you in time

(Ho bitch, you won’t get any further)
Once in a while I get tired of trying to please the bitch I am.
Nothing gets me up and nothing makes me want to leave my pajamas.
Sitting in the same chair from Monday to Sunday,I won’t get any further.
Nothing wakes me up and nothing makes me want to get any further.

Wrap me up and send me to Alaska I wanna see the northern lights

Once in a while believe me I try to drown the bitch I am.
As nothing cheers me up, I might as well keep on beating myself up again and again and again.
I can’t even escape cause I live in a cage with a hundred of open gates,
So I stare at the window waiting for the wolf to blow

Wrap me up and send me to Alaska I wanna see the northern lights

JFK

Are we going to cry when they'll drop our toys from the cliff?
Are we going to play one last time before they take our guitars away?
Are we going to say that nothing really matters, when the truth is obvious and stabs us in the back every day?
How much am I gonna pay? What's the price of a last good bye? Say it.
How much is it gonna hurt? Too much, too much

I lost too many things today, can you promise me you won't lose me during our journey?

Are we going to beg for more attention than we really need?
Are we going to be late for the end of it? Tic-toc time's runing away
Are we going to submit more than tears in a flask to celebrate what's tearing us apart?
How long can we keep these stamps on our hands?
What's the price of another ride?

Beloved Knife

Who is to blame?
There's no right answer
You don't care, and I won't either
Heartless night!
I don't wanna face the fate surrounding our love
But will be father and mother, lovers and liars 'til love expires

I will always hide, cause no one has to know
How I feel inside when I look at my love

Four hundred millions chances to skip out without paying the bill
But you don't leave and I won't either
Will be father and mother, lovers and liars 'til love expires

I will always hide, cause no one has to know
How I feel inside when I look at my love

Aliénore

Everything is so quiet
When the wolves ain't screaming
When the world is sleeping
Everything is so quiet.

Country Bliss

I can't remember what my butt looks like in a dress
I built a nest in my grandpa's knitted sweater vest
I make soup during winter with the vegetables I grew in the summer
I'm too scared to have children so I'm desperately raising kittens
And when the sun goes down on "One-soul" town
The only thing that can be heard is my heart beating

Left High and dry far from the stream of life
I stepped aside from the shouts shouts and the light
The shouts, shouts and the light

One day I know I will lose my reason
What's left in here, what's left is just oblivion
I could try to rise a city in the backyard honey
But there's only one thing I need
Here I stand still in this kitchen...
Who would notice that I'm gone, now you're gone?

Left High and dry far from the stream of life
I stepped aside from the shouts shouts and the light
The shouts, shouts and the light

Crystal Haze

Can you slow down the time? I Drift away
I feel alone, where's your hand gone?
I cannot keep up the pace anymore,
I bounce from one day to the next, I dance and rest
I don't know what I'm doing here.
I cannot keep up the pace

Can you tear me away from the crystal haze?
Can you tear me away from the winter days?

Can you slow down the tide? I'm paralyzed
I feel hollow while I'm looking down at the jellyfish flashing on and off at their own pace
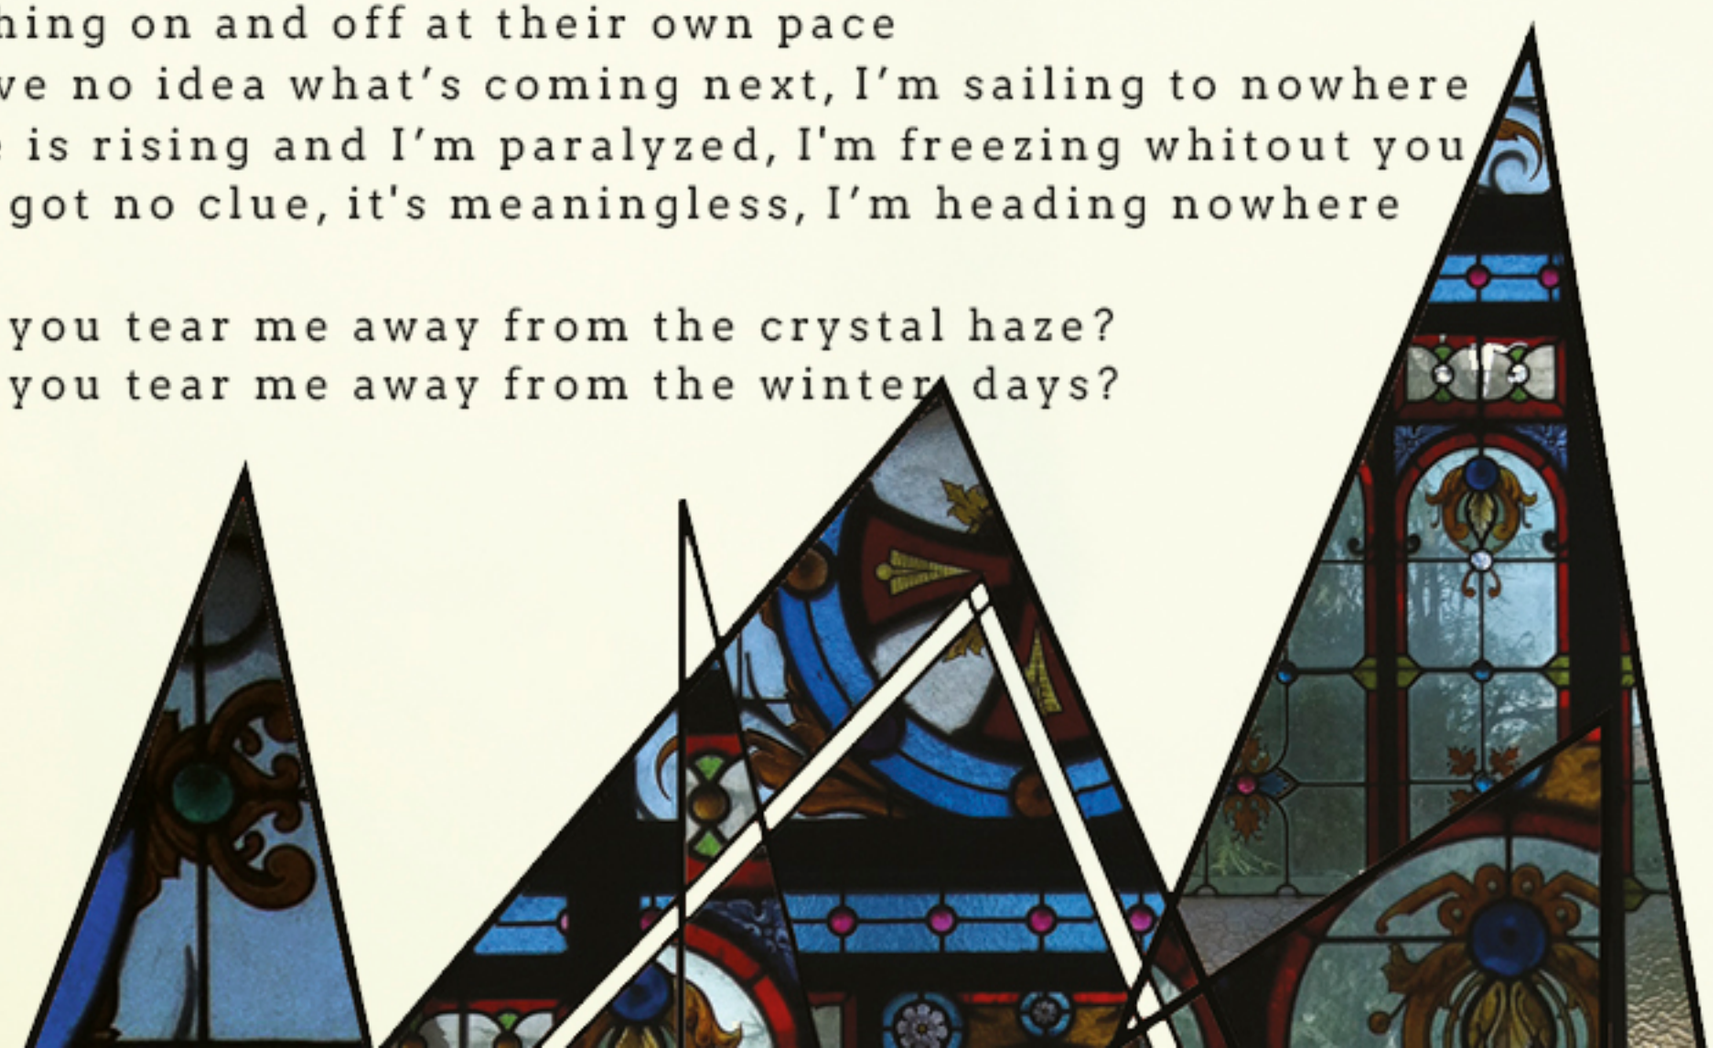
I have no idea what's coming next, I'm sailing to nowhere
Tide is rising and I'm paralyzed, I'm freezing whitout you
I've got no clue, it's meaningless, I'm heading nowhere

Can you tear me away from the crystal haze?
Can you tear me away from the winter days?



Ilda

You complain but you don't even know where the pain comes from You don't know what you want, but you are certain that you don't have it, won't get it so you keep acting like a lion in a cage, stop starving yourself, start feeding your brain cause none of your tricks will ever smother, smother the rage and the tears, the rage and the fears.

Don't you doubt yourself
Don't you doubt yourself

You would choke on a rain drop, so, just chuck it all up then drain the cup. You better grasp fast or it won't last; don't you see how sick and tired he's getting of watching you struggling for nothing. You cant' help but ruin, ruin everything. You're getting smothered, smothered, smothered from your own rage so stick your moan in a cage.
Lay down your arms, lay down to his arms

Suddenly for no reason, suddenly for no reason, suddenly for no reason, we could stop to worry for no good reason.
No more mournful keen.
It's time to rest again.
No more mournful kiss.
It's time to ride again.
Suddenly for no reason we forgot what the sword in our hands was meant for.
Suddenly for no reason, we no longer felt the burn.
Finally now that it's gone, we can talk out loud, live with open doors.
Suddenly for no reason we can stop to blame ourselves for no good reason.
